

Congratulations!

Thousands of votes have been counted and your loyal customers have been heard. You have been voted a finalist in the 2018 Record-Journal Readers' Choice Awards—officially making you one of the very BEST at what you do!

The First Place winner in your category will be announced at the Readers' Choice Awards on Wednesday, October 10th at The Aqua Turf Club at 6:00 p.m. We encourage you to attend and enjoy meeting and mingling with Central Connecticut's best. There will be a cocktail hour and sit down dinner followed by the announcement and plaque presentation to the first place winners.

On Thursday, October 11th Record-Journal will publish the 2018 Readers' Choice special section which will include all the categories, finalists and winners. We have included package information on the special section, as well as follow up ads in Record-Journal and myrecordjournal.com so that you can "brag" about being one of the Best of the Best! These packages also include a window cling for your business and an award certificate for you to display in your business.

We congratulate you again on being voted the best of the best in your category!

Thank you!
